

At SembCorp Industries, we aim towards upholding a high standard of corporate governance, professionalism, integrity and excellence in all our policies and practices. In light of the rapidly changing business landscape, we proactively seek to better and adapt our processes and structures to ensure reliability and relevance in whatever we do. Adopting best practices, financial discipline and high standards of professionalism will not only safeguard the Group's assets but also enhance shareholder value.

passion:

for quality